The Power of the Invisible Sun

The Power of the Invisible Sun

"The Power of the Invisible Sun", Through his philanthropic work, Bobby Sager has come face to face with children living in some of the most war-torn areas of the world. His photographs capture their transcendent spirit : the power of the invisible sun.

These photographs taken in Afghanistan, Rwanda, Pakistan, Palestine, Sri Lanka, Kenya, and Zimbabwe, from September 11, 2001 until early 2009 depict refugees, orphans, child soldiers, and just plain kids living with conflict, disaster, and displacement.

Sager's poignant images are assembled in a visually arresting collection. Including a foreword by Sting, The Power of the Invisible Sun will inspire hope and activism through intimate encounters with these children and the human spirit that defines them.

All of Sager's proceeds from "The Power of the Invisible Sun" will go towards the hope is a game-changer projet which will deliver indestructible soccer balls into the hands of kids in the most difficult places around the world. Sager was inspired to help launch this project with Sting and inventor Tim Jahnigen because of a child soldier and his " ball" featured in the book.

Each indestructible ball is a lasting symbol of hope. A light no matter how small the power of the invisible sun.
